

Donor Bill of Rights

To ensure fairness, accountability and transparency Umoja Uaso Women Group (UUWG), P.O. Box 559-60300, Isiolo / Kenya endorses the following self-commitment.

Supporting the further development of the Umoja Uaso Women Group is based on voluntary action for the common good of all parties involved.

Umoja Uaso Women Group wants to ensure the respect and trust of the general public, donors and all prospective donors. Therefore we declare that all donors have these full rights:

- To be informed of the organization's mission and how donated funds will be used to support intended purposes.
- To be informed about the management structure of the Umoja Uaso Women Group and to expect the group to exercise prudent judgment in relation to donations and responsibility.
- To ask questions and receive forthright answers in a timely manner.
- To be assured that information about donations is treated confidential unless otherwise agreed upon.
- To be recognized for their contributions and entitled to receive a receipt on request.
- To ask for their names to be removed from the groups mailing lists on request.
- To visit our village and projects at their request but on their own expenses.

Endorsed by the Umoja Uaso Women Group

Place and date

Signature